“LISTEN TO HIM”

My dad, as he aged and entered into his early 80's, eventually needed hearing aids. He was reluctant to get a pair because he thought they were way too expensive and he proudly denied that he even needed them.

But it was obvious that when folks talked to him there was a great disconnect. People would ask him a question, and he would pretend that he heard the question and would silently answer them by just nodding his head. One time I even caught him trying to read my lips.

It was frustrating when simple things have to be repeated over and over, and my voice had to become louder and louder, until my dad actually got the message. For both of us, our patience was tested.

When it came to convincing my dad that he needed extra help, the turning point came when his doctor bluntly explained what would happen if he didn't wear them. The doc told him that our brain needs to be stimulated. If we live in total silence our brain will weaken and slow down. Daily conversations exercise our minds and keep us sharp. Studies in audiology have shown that hearing loss can interfere with cognitive abilities because so much brain effort is put toward understanding speech.

Moreover, a loss of hearing, especially for those who are aging, will make them less engaged and distant from their family and friends. There is a sad and natural retreat into their comfortable silence.

Lent gives us the opportunity to sharpen our “listening skills.” Prayer and reflection is our “spiritual hearing aid.” It turns up the volume so that we can hear how God is speaking to us.

What exactly does God want us to hear? Well, the message is clear and simple, “Listen to my Son” That is what we hear in the gospel for this Sunday that describes the Transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain.

Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And Jesus was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

“Listen to him.” That’s all. If we want to know what God is like, listen to him. If we want to hear God’s voice in our own time, if we want to know God’s will, listen to him.

This Lent, may we be able to find a place and a way to “listen slowly” to Jesus—whatever works for you. Hear the same message that he had for his terrified disciples. That is exactly what we need to hear too. “Do not be afraid.” Those three words sum up why Jesus came. He came to remove fear by giving himself to us.

This Lent, may our hearts be transformed, because we have heard the loving voice of Jesus speak to our hearts.

When my dad put in his hearing aids, the first thing he would say to me is, “Why are you shouting at me?”

My hope and prayer is that the voice of Jesus is just as loud and clear for us this Lent.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

This coming Saturday, our parish will joyfully celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for our 8th Grade students from our Religious Education Program and Parish School. It is a proud day for our parish as we welcome Bishop Bob Casey who will administer the sacrament for our 41 students.

These fine young men and women, who are filled with life, energy and plenty of talents, remind all of us that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are with us in our journey of faith. We can always rely on these sacred gifts when we have to discern major decisions; or when we need the courage to do the right thing; or when we need perseverance to face the challenges of every-day life.

Our confirmandi are the hope and future of our Church! We are truly blessed because of them!

Fx. Larry

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

Reflection Guide

Until we take the time to be quiet, we will not hear God. God cannot be heard in noise, restlessness, or distraction. God will speak to us if we give God a chance, if we listen, if we will be quiet. 'Be still' the psalmist wrote, "and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10).

Sometimes we may feel like we are too mentally or emotionally weary and tired to connect with God in our hearts. We just aren't there! The good news is that even during these times of trouble, we can turn our tired heart to God. Don't try to make the agenda for your prayer time. Just sit and "Listen to the Lord!"

During Lent we will use the questions below at our Sunday Masses to help us hear what God is trying to tell us. May our Lenten gospels lead us away from the darkness we face in life and enable us to live in the light of God's love.

Ash Wednesday

"Turn away from sin, and be faithful to the gospel"

- What is your attitude as you enter Lent this year?
- What do you hope will happen this Lent?
- What would you like to do this Lent to make it more meaningful for you and your family?

Fourth Sunday of Lent

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son"

- What difference does Jesus make in your life?
- What was it like to find light in the darkness?
- How has God's love for you opened your eyes and heart?

First Sunday of Lent

"Jesus is tempted in the desert by the Satan"

- What is one temptation that you may experience this week and what will you do resist it?
- Jesus was called into the quiet of the desert so he could better hear the calling of his Father. Where is a quiet place that you can go in order to better listen to your heart?

Fifth Sunday of Lent

"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be gloried"

- How do you identify yourself?
- What parts of your identity do you usually share with others (nationality, race, religion, gender, occupation or others)?
- How do you live out your identity as a child of God?

Second Sunday of Lent

"Jesus is transfigured on the mountain"

- When, where, and how do you recognize Jesus when you encounter him?
- What was your last experience of awe?
- How were you changed by this event?
- What is God trying to tell me through this encounter?

Palm Sunday

"Jesus dies on the cross"

- How do you identify with in this great story about love and sacrifice?
- Which person, or group of people in the Passion story, stands out the most for you? Why?
- Are there similarities in your life?

Third Sunday of Lent

"Jesus cleanses the temple area"

- Where are places you experience the presence of God?
- What are the things within us that we need Jesus to overturn and drive out in order to live in God's light?
- Jesus was angry at times. When is your anger a good thing? When is it not?

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

Thank you Jesus for their witness of faith to us.

Anna Harlow

Hi everyone! My name is Anna Harlow, and I am thrilled to be in the RCIA program here at ICSJ. I recently graduated from the University of Alabama, and now live here in Chicago for my first full-time job. I am excited to become an official member of this church as I grew up going to Catholic school and have always wanted to convert, as I was baptized Methodist. I am eager to get to know all of you and grow in our faith journeys together!

Charlie Chmelik

Hello all, my name is Charlie Chmelik. I graduated college last May, and moved to the city before beginning work in consulting. I am drawn to the Catholic Church as a result of attending a Catholic high school and a Catholic university. I picked up a major in theology throughout my time in college, through which I grew to appreciate the beauty and Tradition of the Church. I am also drawn to the distinctive community of the Church, which I have already begun to sense in this parish as well.

Updates from One Parish One Prisoner Ministry

A Note from Team Robb

I was in prison and you visited me...Matthew 25:36

For the past 18 months, two small groups of parishioners from ICSJ have been part of the One Parish One Prisoner ministry that pairs parish groups with an individual who is incarcerated and approaching release. The goal is to develop relationship and fellowship through letters and visits, and eventually continue that, along with material support when they are released.

This has truly been one of the most meaningful (and challenging) programs we have ever had the privilege of participating in, and we have all grown together in our faith. Our individual, Robb, is scheduled for release in about 6 months, so these are going to be busy, anxious times for all of us.

There may be a time going forward when we reach out for some support, as Robb may have many needs. But for now, we just ask that you hold us, and Robb in prayer that we proceed in compassion and wisdom.

Thank you,

Lisa Dellagiarino Feriend, Susann Gilbert, Dominic Henry, Lois Miller, Dan Stolze

A Note from Team Darnell

You may remember hearing from Team Darnell about his upcoming release date this past summer. As we have learned from this OPOP experience, things rarely turn out as you expect in the prison system. We ask for your continued prayers as we support Darnell through his sentence and for you to join us as we support Team Robert in celebrating Robb's release this summer!!

Peace,

Elly Rodriguez, Tom Prochaska, Kathy Elliot, Jill Pammler, and Margaret Nick

Paul of Tarsus, when writing to the feisty & feuding earliest Christians, repeatedly spoke of gratitude & forgiveness. It's a spiritual path, easy to remember. Join us with Fr. Ken Simpson on this 2-part journey as we reflect, discuss, & practice these two pillars of faith.

March 2 - Gratitude

Let us give thanks to the Lord. It is right and just. It IS truly right and just, our duty and salvation, always and everywhere, to give thanks.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Nancy Gies
Parish Business Manager

Have you considered a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD)?

A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 72 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph Parish please contact: Nancy Gies at ngies@icsiparish.org or (312) 787-7174 ext 7.

What is a Mass Intention?

Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph parish offers the possibility for you to request that a Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received. An intention can also be made for an occasion of a birthday, anniversary or special need, or it can be directed to a cause, such as an increase of vocations or respect for life. Usually, a single intention is attached to a given Mass. But it is also possible to gather several intentions in one Mass with exactly the same effect.

To request a Mass Intention, please visit www.icsjparish.org/mass-intentions or call Angela at the parish office (312)787-7174 ext 1.

Prayer Request

Every month, we receive dozens of prayer requests on our website. No matter where you live in the world, you are invited to share your needs with those who have committed to pray on your behalf. Please visit www.icsjparish.org/the-prayer-connection to submit a prayer Request. To join our ICSJ prayer ministry, email Angela at agore@icsjparish.org

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Consider taking advantage of celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Going to confession is great for one's soul. Receive the wonderful gift of healing and peace that our God longs for us to have in our life.
